

Research Advisor Interviews

Name:

UK ID Number:

Step 1. You are to interview (and to secure signatures from) six faculty members during a Faculty Poster Session and three signatures must be obtained in one-on-one interviews. The two sets can overlap. If no Poster Session is offered in your first semester, then five one-on-one interviews will suffice.

Name (Printed)	Poster Session	Office	Signature
1.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Step 2. Decide which research group you would like to join. Obtain the signature of your new advisor and the DGS.

Be prepared to discuss why you have chosen this specific group and to discuss options if unable to join your first choice.

To the prospective advisor: Your signature indicates that you have accepted this student into your research group.

By doing so, you also commit to the funding specified in this student's offer letter and approve his or her access to your research lab(s).

Advisor Signature &
Date:

Comments:

DGS Signature &
Date:

Step 3. Deliver this signed form to the Graduate Program Assistant in CP-125.

Choosing a research advisor is one of the most important decisions you will make in graduate school. Any change made after this form is submitted will require documentation of the reason for the change, signatures of all parties involved, and verification that all CHE 790 credits earned under the supervision of the previous advisor have already been converted to letter grades.